Tuesday 2nd April 2019

Dear Parents and Carers,

A great opportunity has come to us for our children in Years 3, 4 and 5!

As you know, our children are lucky enough to receive free Mandarin tuition each week. The tutors who deliver these lessons are so impressed with the standard of the children, they wish to enter them for an exam where they could achieve a Level 1 Chinese Language qualification!

The test will take place in May and the children will receive support in their weekly lessons before it is sat. There is no pressure for the children or additional revision, rather it is a chance for them to show off their skills and talents.

The test is an International Standardised Chinese Language test and consists of 2 parts, written and speaking.

The Confucius Institute at UCLan have said that they will pay for our children to sit the test so there is no cost to you!

All we need to do is give the Confucius Institute some basic details ~ name, nationality (this is to determine that the children are non-native Chinese children), gender, date of birth and home language. This information will only be used by the examining body (UCLan Confucius Institute and the Youth Chinese Test body) and will not be sold to third parties under GDPR regulations.

This is a fantastic opportunity for our children and it would be great for them all to take part. However, if you DO NOT wish your child to sit the test, please let us know below. If you do not return the slip by Friday 5th April, we will presume your child will take the test.

Many thanks as always for your continual support.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs A Howarth
