Monday 4th February 2019

Dear Parents and Carers,

Last Friday, I received a call from Lancaster Diocese Education Centre to notify me that we are going to have our Section 48 Denominational Inspection on Monday 4th March 2019. These are Inspections carried out for Faith Schools by the representatives from the local Diocese. Our inspectors are Mrs Jacqueline Hampson and Mrs Angela Hill; both established and experienced Section 48 Inspectors and Headteachers.

We were last inspected in April 2014, so I have been expecting the call for a while!

As you can imagine there is much preparation involved before an inspection including many forms to complete! So that we are well prepared and not rushed, attached to this letter are both a Parental Questionnaire from Lancaster Diocese and an envelope.

Please could you complete the questionnaire as best you can and return to school by Monday 11th February (in 1 week) so that we can send them off to the Diocese for results to be calculated.

The questionnaire is quite straightforward and asks your opinion on different aspects of our school in particular in relation to the Catholic Life. If you are unsure of any questions, please do not hesitate to come and ask me.

As Headteacher and also as the RE Subject Leader, I am VERY proud of our school for many reasons, but especially for our Catholicity and how we engage children, parents and carers and families in our Catholic Life through Liturgies, Mass and various events whilst also celebrating our unique diversity and I hope you are too. English Martyrs' truly is a special place!

Many thanks for your continual support.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs A Howarth
