Dear Parents and Guardians,

In a few weeks we have a special visitor in school, Saira Shah the children's author is coming into school during Book Week on Wednesday 4th March.

Saira will be working with each class during the day as well as a whole school assembly and a meet and greet with book signing at the end of the day.

Saira has asked if any photos and videos taken by school, which will be used on our own social media platforms and website, can also be used by her and in her education column in the Lancashire Telegraph to support World Book Day and the National Year of Reading. As with our own social media and website, no names will be linked to photos or videos.

If you DO NOT wish your child's image, either on video or photo, to be used, either by school or by Saira Shah, please sign and return the slip below. If a return slip is not returned, we will presume you agree to your child's image being used.

Saira's website and information can be found using this link: <https://www.saira-shah.com/>

Thank you for your continual support as always.

Kind regards,

Annalisa Howarth
Headteacher
